1:39pmSearching Far And Wide For Cycling Companion.

Be everything as it may, this transcontinental, international cyclotouriste is navigating to locate a good companion for an extended bicycling tour. Good is defined as---female, healthy, cyclist, with a sense of bold adventure, and the willingness to be compatible on an extended world tour with yours truly.

Starting time is---not any time soon.

Route is---to be decided by those on tour---you and me.

Length of time is---to be decided.

I be fifty-three, healthy, six feet, 180 pounds, good looking but nothing to get all up in the air about, blond receding hair, green eyes, university grad., writer, teacher. Can work in exotic locations and have done so, easy to get along with, adventurous, survivor, world traveler. Have bicycled thirty thousand miles through nineteen countries---USA, Canada, Mexico, western Europe, eastern Europe, former Soviet Union, China, south Korea.

By your description, I'm assuming you are male, but in fact you don't say so. You might want to clarify that specifically. Also, your intentions may not be construed as noble and platonic as you seem to be saying, by leaving that particular fact vague; more in line with a personal ad.

I think the blonde receding hairline thing nails 'im as a male and the easy to get along with part says horny

3.

Of course I am a male. Why the negative comments? Looking for a cycling companion of the opposite sex is perfectly normal, healthy, and legal. Besides, if you are not answering the post, why are you posting here on this message? Not noble and platonic? How old are you? Grow up. I would really appreciate it if you

OP,

Your intentions are quite clear in how you posted this note, my message and the two others are for the would be respondents. But to give you the benefit of the doubt, there is a "travelling companions" branch which may be the better branch to post since that is its main purpose to link up solo travellers together. There - no hard feelings

I have written and asked the moderator to delete your replies. If he cannot delete your replies then I have asked that he delete the post and your replies.

I have just about had it with you internet cowards who are emboldened by anonymity and distance so that you think you have the right to foist your unwarranted horning in on the affairs of others. You people give the internet and its forums a bad name.

I asked you to be responsible people and to mind your own business. Apparently you are unable to control your impulses, therefore, I advise that you remain anonymous and at a distance. You people are an embarrassment. Get off and stay off this post.

No hard feelings Mark R? Yes there are, and I strongly suggest you avoid crossing my path for the rest of your days. Better yet, I strongly suggest you do not let me discover your real identity and location, and that if I do, you are far enough away that it is too much trouble to confront you in person.

You have absolutely no call or reason to suggest what you do here. Your behavior is libelous and cowardly.

cyclotouriste,

After reading post #7 I think if I was a lady cyclist that I would be somewhat afraid to go off on a tour with you, maybe it is best that this post is deleted. To show such anger towards Mark R is unwarranted, as a casual reader of the tt I see nothing offensive in what he posted in #1 and #5.

And I don't mean to sound like a dick or anything but people have to learn to get along together, to just go with the flow and not get violent and angry so easily. Just look at everything that is going on in this world that is worth getting angry about and compare that to the above posts on the tt, this just isn't worth anything.

Any ways I hope that you find your partner.

#13 seems to be aimed at the moderator..."delete this thread", "get all this off here"....? cyclotouriste seems to be threatening the moderator with bodily harm?

cyclotouriste, the moderator is Margs, now, i'm no expert, but Margs seems to be a female name. so, you are threatening to fly to Australia, stalk, and physically harm the female moderator of this forum. in the same thread that you are looking for a female travelling companion. cyclotouriste, i'm not giving opinions about you, saying nothing about you, just quoting you, so don't add me to your "hit list", but it seems to me that someone who is so ready to attack women (or men!) should not be travelling with them... or associating with them in general. the law in your country agrees.

ironic, that cyclotouriste complains about the internet and its foibles... one of the main fears of WOMEN about the internet is that they end up meeting someone abusive, as, apparently, cyclotouriste seems to be...

And you just remember this too you bastard. I am the guy who found out in detail about the plans to attack the WTC, the pentagon, and the US Capitol on or around 9-11-01. I have a book in the making right now, and part of it is on the internet. You read it and you will see that I kept those attack plans under my hat because I know about no good bastards like you and how you permeate American society. It was my opinion that you and people like you need to be taken off this planet. America was attacked because of people like you and because of attitudes like yours. The fact is that even if 9-11 had been nuclear, I still would not have warned you bastards well enough so that you could have done anything to prevent it. You interfere with me and I will interfere with you in ways that you would never dream possible, except that with a chickenshit like you, you would not be worth the consequences. Offing big groups of people like you would have some meaning, but a no good bastards rat like you is not worth the trouble.

Hey you Aussie pigs:

I suppose you have been apprised of the fact that one of your compatriots is now in the hands of certain very righteous, retribution seeking people in Iraq. When will you people ever learn to leave others alone?

You all know what will happen to him now, don't you? He will be trussed up like an animal. They will slit his throat, and then let him bleed for a while, and then off comes his head.

There comes a time when the treading upon the rights of others becomes unforgivable, and when the unforgivable must be done to counteract it. I have worked with some Australians in foreign venues, and while I can understand that life deals low blows from time to time, if their attitudes were any indication of what we can expect of Australians in general, the world would best be served by a thousand such kidnappings as the one lately in Iraq, and of course by the subsequent ceremonies that usually follow such events.

I entered this forum with a perfectly decent, normal, post, and then people answered it with innuendo, libel, and accusation. I ask that you boycott this forum and the bastards that post on it and run it until they delete my post, membership, and all the replies that these petty criminals made.

Dear cyclotouriste,

It certainly is a pleasure to hear that visionary people like you still make your voice heard. It's about time the silent majority had their sound and sane opinions made public and recognised for that they are, the majority. Most normal, law-abiding and respecting citizens, in their right mind, would agree that you deserve some real recognition for your patriotic duities to America. Allowing information to the effect that the pentagon was under threat to lay low was a noble, self-sacrificing effort for the greater good. The losses of a few (or maybe five) thousand was the wake up call required to make us Americans appreciate the independence and sovereignty of foreign states and their nationals. You're voice is like a refreshing wind in a Heinz baked beans factory. How much does the book cost, I'm on the waiting list?

There are more than a few bits I would like to add here, in all good humour of course, "On your Bike!", was one of my dad's favourite ways of telling someone that he was FIRED!

If a person states in his profile that he's 55, and then posts an, "offer", stating that he's 53, is this being economical with the truth or just that he can't count? There was a similar offer on the Ocean Wave branch some time ago when a guy made an "offer" with a 40inch boat!

Some time ago I died and had to have a few bypasses fitted, during the re-habilitation physiotherapy programme called CAPRI, (which had absoluty nothing to do with islands in the Bay of Naples), I met a dutchman, aged 55, who was also an ardent cyclist, (all Dutchmen are, but this one was a ringer for the OP), he told me that he did fifty Km per day on his bike for the last 25 years and that he was now trying to up it to 100 as he would be retiring at the end of the six week programme, a week later he was back in bed on an enforced ICU rest.

It's a proven international medical fact, that males who have heart attacks, minor, major or fatal, are aged between 42 and 58, weight, height and eye or hair colouring, educational qualifications, have no or little effect in altering the statistic.

Dear cyclotouriste,

I am female, healthy, cyclist, with a sense of bold adventure, and the willingness to be compatible on an extended world tour with you.

I am also easy to get along with, most of the time. My therapist says that still have to work on my social skills, but I am getting there.

I hope it will be o.k. if we take my 10 cats along, as they become very depressed when mommy is away.

The doctor does not want me to stop taking the lithium, but it makes me very tired and I'll need energy for all that cycling.

I can't say for sure yet if I can commit to the bike tour, because I have to get permission from my probation officer. He can be a little unreasonable at times; he insists that I must continue going to the anger management classes. I already TOLD that son of a whore I DON'T NEED NO GODDAMN ANGER MANAGEMENT CLASSES.

O.K. I hope to meet you. Please don't wear yellow, I really hate yellow. The bad voices sound yellow.

Everyone (and especially #52),

What the hell did I start here, I'm basically new to this forum and hadn't come back until now because cyclotouriste freaked me out at first. Honestly, I don't really know why I sent that sort of lame reply in post #1, but I guess it's sure to live on for quite some time now. Is there anyway to go back in time and retype that damn thing? My post looking back now seems a bit earnest, and of course I knew cyclotouriste was a dude, but I thought his OP sounded just like a personal ad in the Guardian: SWM seeks SF etc...and I thought it'd be fun to razz him a little on that, boy was I wrong.

And yes, I did receive a PM from OP threatening me with violence and I was taken by surprise by that one, but glad to hear I ain't the only one...good to know who he is tho.

holy shit! when i began reading this thread i thought this guy was a troll. but if you follow all the posted links, to this guys cv's and posts on biking forums, etc... - some people on these forums also linked to other sites where this guy appears - well im thinking he is for real because that would be an extremely elaborate troll(do people really do this sort of thing?) .
anyways, the site montyman links at 62 - mondopolitico.com - check out the last or 2nd to last entry on that page, where he mentions 4 women being murdered in an area he was passing through. it struck me as really weird, frightening. and then again he mentions the murders and that he knows the area.
im got chills when i read that. im curious if those murders were solved and if not someone should point the local police to this thread and its links.
mabey im being paranoid but i got a weird feeling about this one.

OP's words from the mondopolitico site

"From El Paso I had taken the bus to Arcada, CA. I remember there was a story in the news in those days that three women visiting in a large state park in the eastern part of CA had been found murdered in their car, and that those women had lived in Arcada. From Arcada I cycled south on the Pacific Coast I told some other guys in the dorm what I had found out about the coming airplane attacks, and how I had found out. Their names and the wording of the conversation are lost to me right now, but so is the name of the state park where those women were murdered, and I know that name quite well. " and check out this weirdness from one of his online CV's (sorry i dont know how to link directly)

"Interestingly, at the time I had been elected to the board of directors at the Martin County literacy Council, Barbara Bush (who was wife to President George H.W. Bush, and who was first lady of the United States) was a member there and a supporter of that organization....I am a survivor of the worst railroad disaster in the history of Ireland (August 1, 1980). I was at the release of the American hostages from Iran where I met President Jimmy Carter and Secretary of State of the US, Edmund Muskey. In 1997, while teaching at a college in South Korea, I discovered plans to attack the World Trade Center and the pentagon using commandeered, fuel-laden aircraft, and had told well over 100 people about it in detail in the years before it happened. Of this last statement I do have evidence and proof. My international experiences are more than stated here."

I'm just concerned now

First, THE HINT.

Place: Police station in Stuart, Florida.

Time: Not sure, but it was dark out. We were inside.2001, pre 9-11.

There had been an incident in Shepard Park where I had been playing with my baby daughter who had recently learned to walk. Some little kid walked up to her and began pulling her hair out. I grabbed this kid's arms and lifted them away from her. What father would stand there while some little brat was attacking his baby daughter? Would any of you? So this little kid's father comes up and starts threatening me. I grabbed up my daughter and left. Later that night I reported the incident to a police officer at the Police department.

Predictable, the police officer sided with the man whose son had been pulling my daughter's hair.

Remember, my daughter was just a baby who had just found her legs. Well, I was sitting there listening to this pig condone violence against me and my daughter. As you already know, I was well aware of what was down the road in terms of the airplanes as missiles attacks being planned and trained for in those days right here in Florida. But I had had it with these bastards and their corrupt system. My point was this and it is still this. You condone violence against me and mine, and I will condone it back against you, if I am able.This police officer even had the arrogance to tell me about developmental stages of a childhood, which I had already studied and knew. What she told me was erroneous.

I could not just come out and tell this officer about the coming attacks. Instead I said this just as I was leaving the police station. This is about how the conversation went.

Myself: Do you know anything about flying airplanes:

Officer: No I don't. Why do you ask that?

Myself: Well, I know some people coming here. They need to take flying lessons. They want to learn how to fly but they need lessons. You can imagine what might happen if people flew airplanes if they did not know how to fly properly.

She thought she was oh so smart, but underneath it all I was laughing at them all.

You continue to lay threats at others and posture like some tough guy (fucking French). I DARE you to post your exact location, and see how many people are scared to show up. You say that others hide behind the internet, but it is you who is hiding.

I personally will be sticking metal plumbing pipes into the spokes of the wheels of every passing cyclist I see touring, on the off chance that it may be you I'm doing it too...

The name John Gobin Shaw is a fake. If you look up the names individually, they come from the names of famous right wing civil liberty groups in the USA. He has combined the 3 figures into one name.

The guy has been very busy on the internet.. Heres just some of his postings.. theres many more, but I got bored.

A crime psychologist would have a field day with this guy.....

from #146: "I personally will be sticking metal plumbing pipes into the spokes of the wheels of every passing cyclist I see touring, on the off chance that it may be you Im doing it too..."

I fear cyclotouriste, after all, may be the death of the rest of us cyclists!

I know this thread has been x-posted all over the TT, but come on people. This is, after all, the "On Your Bike" branch, and there ARE quite a few cyclists on here other than cyclotouriste, believe it or not. Saying stuff like #146 said (particularly on THIS branch) is not cool, even in jest.

Seems he is only looking for jobs in China, doubtless because they won't check his paperwork too closely. On one of the forums he appears to post large extracts of his 'book', seems to consist mainly of rambling rubbish about his 9-11 'prediction'.

JOHN GOBIN SHAW

Nationality: American.

Gender: Male.

Hobbies: Transcontinental bicycling.

Writing.

World travel.

I am an American with the BA, the diploma in TEFL, certification in ESL, further studies in TEFL, and second language learning and teaching, and five years experience teaching in the United States, in South Korea, and in the People's Republic of China. About two and one half of those five years of teaching were at the college or university levels.

Of three years teaching in Taegu, South Korea, two years were spent in a college, and one year was spent at the most famous language institute in that city of more than three million people.

I taught for over one year in Beijing. I performed several demonstration classes at the 21st Century English Language Institute of the China Daily News. I proffered lessons to members of the Chao Yang District police department. I taught the details of writing for academic purposes (ESP--research papers) at the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences. I also had the priviledge of teaching English to leaders of departments of Beijing municipal government at the television station at Fuchingmen, just down the road from Tianenman Square.

My studies into the various aspects of language learning have been extensive, in-depth, and very time consuming, giving me a deep knowledge and an understanding of the field from the educational point of view..

I have written manuscripts amounting to well over onethousand pages of single-spaced prose English. I have studied effective writing and I practiced it extensively. I have read the classics.

Schools in which I have taught are: Yeungjin Junior College in Taegu, South Korea. ELS in Taegu. Hanil English Language Institute in Bundang, South Korea. The 21st Century English Language Institute of the China Daily News in Beijing. The Aston English School in Jinan, China. AoJing International, Ltd. in Ya Yun Cun in Beijing. The Chinese Academy of Social Sciences in Beijing. The Martin County Literacy Council of Stuart, Florida.

Interestingly, at the time I had been elected to the board of directors at the Martin County literacy Council, Barbara Bush (who was wife to President George H.W. Bush, and who was first lady of the United States) was a member there and a supporter of that organization.

As for international experience, I have traveled extensively to thirty-five countries. I lived in Europe for over two years. I have lived in Asia for almost five years. I have bicycled thirty-thousand miles through nineteen countries including the USA, Canada, Mexico, Western Europe, Eastern Europe, the former Soviet Union, China, and a little in South Korea. I am a survivor of the worst railroad disaster in the history of Ireland (August 1, 1980). I was at the release of the American hostages from Iran where I met President Jimmy Carter and Secretary of State of the US, Edmund Muskey. In 1997, while teaching at a college in South Korea, I discovered plans to attack the World Trade Center and the pentagon using commandeered, fuel-laden aircraft, and had told well over 100 people about it in detail in the years before it happened. Of this last statement I do have evidence and proof. My international experiences are more than stated here.

In spare time I like to work out with weights in resistance training at a gym. I like to stay healthy and in condition. I am 55 but I am a very active 55. For example, I just completed a bicycling tour from southeastern Florida in the USA to San Diego, California. I do not know the use of a rocking chair.

BA degree from Barry University of Miami Shores, Florida.
Diploma TEFL from the English Language Centre of London, England. Six month course.
Certificate ESL in the Laubach method from the Martin County Literacy Council.
Five months initial TESOL training in the language lab at the literacy council Spectrum High School.
Wrote 270 page thesis on various aspects TEFL.

hey there, cyclotouriste... or "psycho-touriste" as you are better known in this forum... maybe you really need is to calm down a bit. What's the matter, is your caffeine intake exceptionally high these days? It's one thing to troll the net and look for gals to chat up and groom only to invite them long on some bogus cross country bike ride where you then inevitably force yourself on her at your leisure and something totally different to show your arrogance and try to bully anyone who makes a half-hearted attempt to poke a little fun at you or criticise your "technique." Personally, I think that you have a really good idea. Why not invite a female along on a bike trip, remove her from her element and whatever safety net of friends or family which she may have, go on some impossibly long cross country trip where you inevitably force yourself on her; ass raping her relentlessly for hours on end, only to leave her nude body in the middle of nowhere in a grave so shallow a puppy could dig her up. I like your style. One question remains, though. You appear to have a preoccupation with the word "whore." Is this something that is possibly burned in your mind stemming from vivid childhood memories? In reality, aren't you imagining your mother as she serviced the disgusting sexual needs of countless strange men whom you somehow referred to as "daddy" as they frequented your home when you use that word to criticise others? Maybe you would benefit from a wee bit of therapy before your next planned "rape fest" or bike trip, as you like to call it.

Immortality is going to happen to this thread...Hi I'm new here, because I found this through Sensible Erection. This person "JOHN GOBIN SHAW " is now infamous. This persons new life as the village idiot will haunt him to the grave. After all when they do job background checks, most places actually google the net now to see what they come up with. Just delete my membership!!!! , I don't know about you but I hear Cartmans voice when I read the bold text to his posts. Anyhow because of this laughable thread yesterday I pulled out my Mt.Bike, a 8 year old GT zaskar, overhauled it and put on some new tires. I road today for the first time in two years and it feels good to be back in the saddle. Nothing too extream...just an 8 mile ride over Trans Mountain in El Paso. I'm on break from school and I wouldn't ride my bike in Lubbock its too dangerous there. El Paso though is really nice. Weather rocks 90 percent of the year, and we have a mountain which is great for hill work.

In memory of cyclotouriste, we hardly knew him but the net knew him well

I think perhaps you should change your log in name to psycho~touriste. Far more appropriate and truthful. This way you'll undoubtedly attract the right kind of female traveler who can handle you without killing you in your sleep. Best of luck. As a side note/question, how can you say your easy to get along with when you fly completely off the handle at even the nicest of suggestions and comments? I have no clue how you have survived your so called "extended world tours" and what is entirely comical, you describe yourself as a "survivor". With your attitude, you really piss people off and would make it hard for anyone to see you as a survivor. You seem to survive here only because you remain truly anonymous.

Count me as someone who wasted entirely too much time reading this thread - and the links. It's stupid to try and think logically about this guy, but they're are too many weird parts of his story. In his posts at mondopolitico, John goes on all sorts of crazy rants describing the times he told people about flying airplanes into the WTC before Sept. 11. From all his stories, we get that he's crazy and hates America (in real life, not the Republican version of the charge). When he tells law enforcement, it's in cryptic ways to locals instead of a direct letter to the FBI. Sometimes he uses his supposed knowledge of the attacks in the form of "I know something you don't, ha!"

So he goes on and on. When he finally gets around to writing how he knew about the attacks, he actually tries to take credit for the idea behind the plot. He's trying to get a job in Saudi in 1997. Having problems so he makes contact with someone in the embassy. For some reason rants to that person about the criminal government in Florida, his conspiracy theory about the train crash and how he was picked on while in the US Army. His next post:

"I had also told these people by e-mail in Saudi Arabia one of the reasons I had applied for a job there. I told them that I wanted to be able to live there and work there so that I might make connections with wealthy, influential Saudis with friends in high places, perhaps in Washington D.C., who might be willing to help a person like me settle some accounts against people back in the USA who considered themselves above the law.

I also told them in writing that even though I was not married then, that if I were to get married and have a baby, that if I were to take that child back to the US, that I would have to fear for that baby's safety.

In fact, later I did get married and we did have a baby girl in a foreign country. Back in the USA in Stuart, Florida, when she was about 11 months old, she was manhandled in public by three brutes. She was so badly injured that we had to take her to the hospital repeatedly for costly medical treatment. And true to Florida's criminal government, the three criminals who hurt her are walking free, never arrested, just as though they had done nothing wrong at all. I think you are beginning to get the point here and now. That was just one incident in a very long list of incidents over the years, and I was appealing to foreign powers to intercede on my behalf against this criminal enterprise of a government in Florida.

I went on to tell them about my novel "Genesis of Terror" and about how it ends with a one man terrorist attack against government in the state of Florida. The method of attack is with commandeered, fuel-laden aircraft and high explosives flown into a large government complex in Florida. Knives are also used in the attack. I still have it all on paper, the novel that is, with details and all revisions on original paper with a copyright date of 1990.

At one point these people wrote back to me telling me that they were very interested and that they wanted to continue the dialog. I went on to tell them that such a plan of attack would be easy enough to pull off. I explained to them that they could come right here to Florida to get the flight training if needed. I even gave them instructions on what not to say and how to act to avoid coming under suspicion while getting flight training for the mission. I mean, this was all in writing over the internet by e-mail.

I had no real idea who they were. I would send to one e-mail address, and get an answer from a different person at a different e-mail address. I did not memorize the addresses. At that time I still was not sure what the outcome would be.

I told them that I had written my novel and ended it with the airplane attack because I had been thoroughly screwed over in Florida, and that in the early seventies I was putting together exactly such an attack myself, and was considering doing it myself. I was looking into getting flight lessons. I had located a site where explosives could be stolen. I was putting together plans to load a cargo plane with fifty-five-gallon-drums of gasoline and the explosives. But initial planning was as far as I got with the plan because I could not stay motivated enough to follow through with it. I had been provoked, attacked, severely injured, almost murdered with the aiding and abetting of the government here, and I intended to make them pay in a way that history could not ignore or assign to a footnote.

But the provocations stopped for a while, and my motivation to annihilate them lessened over time.

I explained this to them by e-mail, A went on to tell them that I was aware of what the US military had been doing to innocent people in the Middle East which was much worse than what had been done to me. I told them that I was sure that there were people there who would be motivated enough to accept a mission to launch this airplanes as missiles style attack. I told them that all it takes is the guts to accept it, and the will power to follow through with it. I told them they would need specially educated and trained personnel to perform the technical tasks of the attack, but that they could get that training right here in Florida.

Okay. So all this did happen and it was in writing. And what did they tell me in reply.

We want you to know that "We agree with everything you have told us. We are very seriously considering all your suggestions."

So had did genius John about the attacks? Because, in his delusional mind, he masterminded them, at least at the beginning. Priceless.

Uh, John, you might want to realize AQ had plans of using a commercial airplane as a missile in the early 1990s.

I also felt that this would be summarize how I felt about you. I belong to a college football message board, who I do not know if they want to be named or not, so I shall go with not for now, and one of our members, who recently was discovered to be a plagiarizing bastard, stealing other people's dynasties for various sites and posting them as his own on other sites, posted this back in December on the message board. Here is what I think of you cyclotouriste.

"You swine. You vulgar little maggot. You worthless bag of filth. As they say in Texas, you couldn't pour water out of a boot with instructions printed on the heel. You are a canker, an open wound. I would rather kiss a lawyer than be seen with you. You took your last vacation in the Isles of Langerhan. You're a putrescent mass, a walking vomit. You are a spineless little worm deserving nothing but the profoundest contempt. You are a jerk, a cad, a weasel. Your life is a monument to stupidity. You are a stench, a revulsion, a big suck on a sour lemon. You are a bleating foal, a curdled staggering mutant dwarf smeared richly with the effluvia and offal accompanying your alleged birth into a hostile world. You are an insensate, blinking calf, meaningful to nobody, abandoned by the puke-drooling, giggling beasts who sired you and then should have died of shame in recognition of what they had done. They are a bit late.

I will never get over the embarrassment of belonging to the same species as you. You are a monster, an ogre, a malformity. I barf at the very thought of you. You have all the appeal of a paper cut. Lepers avoid you. You are vile, worthless, less than nothing. You are a weed, a fungus, the dregs of this earth. You snail-skulled little rabbit. Would that a hawk pick you up, drive its beak into your brain, and upon finding it rancid set you loose to fly briefly before spattering the ocean rocks with the frothy pink shame of your ignoble blood. May you choke on the queasy, convulsing nausea of your own trite, foolish beliefs. You are weary, stale, flat and unprofitable. You are grimy, squalid, nasty and profane. You are foul and disgusting. You're a fool, an ignoramus. Monkeys look down on you. Even sheep won't have sex with you. You are unreservedly pathetic, starved for attention, and lost in a land that reality forgot. And what meaning do you expect your delusionally self-important statements of unknowing, inexperienced opinion to have with us? What fantasy do you hold that you would believe that your tiny-fisted tantrums would have more weight than that of a leprous desert rat, spinning rabidly in a circle, waiting for the bite of the snake?

You are a waste of flesh. You have no rhythm. You are ridiculous and obnoxious. You are the moral equivalent of a leech. You are a living emptiness, a meaningless void. You are sour and senile. You are a loathsome disease, a puerile slack-jawed drooling meatslapper. You make Quakers shout and strike Pentecostals silent. Your mother had to tie a pork chop around your neck just to get your dog to play with you. You think P.D.Q. Bach is the greatest composer who ever lived. Hee-Haw is too deep for you. You would watch test patterns all day if the other politicians would let you. On a good day you're a half-wit. You remind me of drool. You are deficient in all that lends character. You have the personality of wallpaper. You are dank and filthy. You are asinine and benighted. You are the source of all unpleasantness. You spread misery and sorrow wherever you go.

You smarmy lagerlout git. You bloody woofter sod. Bugger off, pillock. You grotty wanking oik artless base-court apple-john. You clouted boggish boot-licking half-twit. You dankish clack-dish plonker. You gormless crook-pated tosser. You bloody churlish boil-brained clotpole ponce. You craven dewberry pisshead cockup prating naff. You cockered bum-bailey poofter. You gob-kissing gleeking flap-mouthed coxcomb. You dread-bolted fobbing beef-witted clapper-clawed flirt-gill. You are so clueless that if we stripped you naked, soaked you in clue musk, and dropped you into a field full of horny clues, you still would not have a clue. You are a fiend and a coward, and you have bad breath. You are degenerate, noxious and depraved. I feel debased just for knowing you exist. I despise everything about you, and I wish you would go away.

I cannot believe how incredibly stupid you are. I mean rock-hard stupid. Dehydrated-rock-hard stupid. Stupid so stupid that it goes way beyond the stupid we know into a whole different dimension of stupid. You are trans-stupid stupid. Meta-stupid. Stupid collapsed on itself so far that even the neutrons have collapsed. Stupid gotten so dense that no intellect can escape. Singularity stupid. Blazing hot mid-day sun on Mercury stupid. You emit more stupid in one second than our entire galaxy emits in a year. Quasar stupid. Your writing has to be a troll. Nothing in our universe can really be this stupid. Perhaps this is some primordial fragment from the original big bang of stupid. Some pure essence of a stupid so uncontaminated by anything else as to be beyond the laws of physics that we know. I'm sorry. I can't go on. This is an epiphany of stupid for me.

The only thing worse than your logic is your manners. Maybe later in life, after you have learned to read, write, spell, and count, you will have more success. True, these are rudimentary skills that many of us "normal" people take for granted, and that everyone has an easy time of mastering, but we sometimes forget that there are "challenged" persons in this world who find these things more difficult. I wish you the best of luck in the emotional, social and political struggles that seem to be placing such a demand on you. Merry Christmas you mushed-mouthed and mottled monstrosity, and may the New Year reciprocate the global atrocities you seem hell-bent on perpetrating."

Don't you see what's happening? You've let Cyclotouriste turn you on each other. Somewhere he's boarded up in a little house with tin foil covering his windows, throwing little scraps of bread to the women tied up in his closet, and he's smiling because he knows deep down that he's winning. Well that and he'll be Earth's representative when we're invaded in the near future. Which he's known about for years but refuses to share with the rest of us! Hi, this site is all about cyclotouriste, REAL CYCLOTOURISTE. This post is awesome. My name is Robert and I can't stop thinking about Cyclotouriste. This guy is cool; and by cool, I mean totally sweet.

Facts:

1. Cyclotouristes are mammals.
2. Cyclotouriste uncovers secret terrorist plans ALL the time.
3. The purpose of Cyclotouriste is to flip out and kill people.

Weapons and gear:

Cyclotouriste Bike Cyclotouriste Secret Terrorist Plans

Cyclotouriste Outfit

Testimonial:

Cyclotouriste can kill anyone he wants! Cyclotouriste cuts off heads ALL the time and doesn't even think twice about it. This guy is so crazy and awesome that he flips out ALL the time. I heard that Cyclotouriste was eating at a diner. And when some dude dropped a spoon Cyclotouriste killed the whole town. My friend Mark said that he saw Cyclotouriste totally uppercut some kid just because the kid opened a window.

And that's what I call REAL Ultimate Power!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

If you don't believe that Cyclotouriste has REAL Ultimate Power you better get a life right now or he will chop your head off!!! It's an easy choice, if you ask me.

Cyclotouriste is soooooooooooooo sweet that I want to crap my pants. I can't believe it sometimes, but I feel it inside my heart. This guy is totally awesome and that's a fact. Cyclotouriste is fast, smooth, cool, strong, powerful, and sweet. I can't wait to start cycling next year. I love Cyclotouriste with all of my body (including my pee pee).

Q and A:.

Q: Why is everyone so obsessed about Cyclotouriste?

A: Cyclotouriste is the ultimate paradox. On the one hand he doesn't give a crap, but on the other hand, Cyclotouriste is very careful and precise.

Q: I heard that Cyclotouriste is always cruel or mean. What's his problem?

A: Whoever told you that is a total liar. Just like other mammals, Cyclotouriste can be mean OR totally awesome.

Q: What does Cyclotouriste do when he's not discovering terrorist plots or flipping out?

A: Most of his free time is spent cycling, but sometime he murders unsuspecting women. (Ask Mark if you don't believe me.)

We should be careful not to enrage the dread pirate Cyclotouriste. Don't forget, friends, he has the mythical ability to explore Earth's locales on his enchanted bicycle. He has logged over 100,000,000 miles on his bicycle, so he probably has thighs about as thick as a redwood. If he were to put you in a scissors lock and squeeze, you would be crushed like a walnut.

I would be interesting in building a replica of his Terrorism Squadron official thundercycle. It is unfortunate he didn't complete that journey to Maine with John Demirijian (sp.), I would have liked to perhaps cross paths with him, and maybe I could have been the Robin to his Batman and help him thwart international terror threats. I also share in his unrequited hatred of poltroons. I like to hunt them with my slingshot out in the woods.

Cyclotouriste, please teach me the ancient art of flipping out. I have a Gary Fisher collecting dust somewhere, perhaps I could join you and we could join forces to tell the world that we're special because we had a looney theory before a national tragedy occurred. I also want to be a black belt ranter like you, and we can usurp all of the YELLOWBELLY CHICKENSHIT COWARDS! BASTARDS! INFIDELS!

All hail the mighty Cyclotouriste! Se Drinkum Beerum! Se Flippum Outum! Se Poltroonum Gunshootum!

I have traveled back in time to seek out my lost brother, the suit wearing introvert piano kid of the UK. His memory did not survive the trip back to 2005

FYI - Although I can understand your concern about Cyclo being a serial killer (that was a rather flippant remark about the murders in CA), the real killer was Cary Stayner, who has been tried and convicted. Hard to believe, but his story may be even stranger than anything our friend AKA John Gobin Shaw could ever conjure up. Truly a sick individual. Here is one version of his story:
http://www.salon.com/mwt/hot/1999/07/30/steven_stayner/print.html

Also, googling Cyclo's alias, produces many more links than you could imagine. IMO not a troll... Thanks Mimi Smartypants for linking to this wonderful thread. What a waste of a morning!

Isn't it kind of funny that when one person starts to bleed, you all started pecking?

Are you really all that much better than him? Yeah, he had a temper tantrum, and isn't the plastic-perfect-person, top-of-his-class graduate, but aren't you less than perfect, too? If you made a mistake, would you want several hundred people coming down on you?

Do you all really think you're so much better? This thread reads like a pack of ravenous dogs. It doesn't take much cajones to join an attacking mob.

A person like cyclo who reaches his age without full maturity needs some well-intended encouragement, not mocking. You all sound like you're over 25, but you're not acting mature. You should be ashamed of yourselves. I hope you mature by the next time this happens.

Re: #208

Let me see, you sign your post "Alpha Male", call everyone "a pack of ravenous dogs", imply everyone posting here is immature, and say we "should be ashamed" of ourselves, for piling on poor, defenseless cyclotouriste. Now who feels superior? Add a threat of physical violence, and you could pass for the OP. Did you read all the posts and some of the links to other writings by our illustrious friend? The man claims to have had prior knowledge of the 9/11 attacks which he shared with English-as-a-second-language students in Korea and China, a Florida 911 dispatcher and a bunch of bewildered bystanders in a park (not a very effective strategy IMO). He even claims that he wanted to carry out similar attacks but changed his mind. But not before he inadvertently gave the idea to unknown Saudis. He goes on to condone the attacks in a goes-around, comes-around sort of way. He also seemed to be gleefully anticipating the decapitation of an Australian hostage in Iraq (thankfully rescued in the past day or so). What a sweetheart!! You might want to rethink whom you choose to defend and to attack. Most of us read the thread because it started as an amusing temper tantrum, but quickly turned into an alarming case study in psychosis. Hopefully, nobody ever takes this wolf in sheep's clothing up on one of his offers to meet offline.

I read every post that was written here and this cyclotouriste guy is without a doubt unbalanced and he started the whole thing. His rage is out of control and with no question in my mind the people on this

He was not looking for just a riding partner. He was looking for more and maybe when he didn't get it willingly he would have taken it. Because of post 19 I contacted the FBI and emailed them a copy of that post. He needs to be put away for a very long time.

Thanks to the Mods for keeping this thread up. It could very well be the best source of information for for people who don't think there are problems with meeting people on line.

I looked at the Mondo Politico thread. Christ on a bike, this guy could be the basic of a psychological treatise. He's convinced that the Irish state transport company back in the 80s, CIE (its acronym was explained in those days as "Cycling Is Easier"), tried to kill him by disrailing his train, in between his meeting the Pope's assassin and American hostages:

<http://www.mondopolitico.com/discus/messages/441/2087.html>

served in the US Army in Germany from 1979 till 1981. During this time I became the object of six months of specifically worded terrorist threats. I had a girlfriend who warned me not to go on a train tour that summer (1980) because one of the trains would be blown up that summer. I became a survivor of the worst train disaster in the history of Ireland, or so it was called(*). I met Mahmet Ali Agca before he went to the Vatican and shot Pope John Paul. I was at the release of the American hostages from Iran. And more.

(*) So it was called in his mind - the worst was the Armagh rail disaster of 1889: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Armagh_rail_disaster

It makes bizarre reading. He claims that the very name of the place suggests the accident:

Quote

8. Buttevant station?
Butt means to strike against with a violent destructive force.
Van is defined as a railroad car. Buttevant?
There is more but I am running out of time.

Actually, Buttevant comes from 'Boutez-an-avant', the Barry family's warcry. It's highly unlikely a town was named in the 13th century because one day they thought a "van" (aka, train) would "strike" there.

Seriously seriously whacko.

Having read his website, I can only say that the saddest part is this guy has a genuine mental problem. He's seen people die in what was nothing more than an accident - all the more tragic that he uses the 18 dead in a derailment as the springboard for his illness - and it's obviously scarred him. To be so paranoid as to still think that the Irish national rail company would kill those people and damage their reputation as a carrier, because he "remembers" the word Eireann (Ireland, as Gaeilge) from another one of those unsubstantiated transactions/voices of his past. Seems like he may be so traumatised by experience of acts of horror, whether caused by misfortune or terrorism, that he has to involve himself in them, perhaps even see connections that aren't there to give himself a sense of power over them. He's carried it through to the WTC attacks, whether he had or not inuited/guessed/overheard something he connected to them or not, he'd probably have found some other links anyway.

Granted, he's a rude, obnoxious, possibly dangerous man, who in his accounts of run-ins with the law marks himself as a wronged (but implied and stated violent) man - I certainly hope never to meet him, and that he never carries out any of his strange wish-fulfilment. He's entertaining here, but he's out there somewhere, and scarily enough is real.

Don't goad the animals, guys and gals, cos some other misfortunate could get bit. I'd pity this guy if I didn't fear him.

WhoElse, I'm inclined to agree with you. I'm sure cyclotouriste is (mostly) harmless, but it is sad that this person is not receiving psychological help. His own life and the lives of those around him would probably be eased by treatment for a disorder involving paranoia.

About his big claims and such.

By S H on Sunday, June 12, 2005 - 05:55 pm

Hi

Before taking on board everything this guy is saying, I'd like to refute one small entry he has made. I am an Irish journalist and just wanted to point out something about one of his earlier posts. It's this one:

Terrorist threats 1979-1980 linked to Train derailed by Coras Iompair Eireann.

CORAS IOMPAIR EIREANN derailed a train at Buttevant station, County Cork on August 1, 1980.

Derailment preceded by six months of terrorist threats naming (Eireann) fifty times or more.

Threats made by Specialist Stavrinakis, and Sargent John P. Vogel of the US Army in Germany."

End

CORAS IOMPAIR EIREANN is not a terrorist group. CIE is the Irish rail service.

It's a small point in the grand scheme of things, but the watchword of good journalism is check, check, check. If one part of his story doesn't add up, the rest can fall like a house of cards.

I would warn anyone thining of contacting this guy. He displays the classic traits of someone with a personality disorder, certainly a sociopath and bordering on psychotic.

Of course, that could be because he's right, and has had a massive breakdown as a result... "**"
End quote

Hello psychotourist,

Perhaps as you travel the world you can meet a mysterious, exotic woman in a dark bar in Rangoon and she will have with her a strangely large briefcase. When she opens it you will discover it is an aquarium briefcase. And in that briefcase she will have a live octopus.

For 50 dollars US the two of you will retire to a filthy room above the bar, where alone you will allow her to shove that octopus into your rectum. "The perfect octopus!!! The perfect octopus!!!" you will scream as it brings you to orgasmic joys you have never reached before.

Then sated you will allow the octopus -- somewhat worse for the wear -- to flow out of your rectum and back into the aquarium briefcase.

Only later will you discover that you have contracted Octopus Ick from your lover. But that is the life of a world traveling, bicycling psychotourist, eh?

I just wanted say I am cycletouriste's psychiatrist.

I think it's time he made his mental case known to everyone and so here I am.

He hasn't been taking his prescriptions over the past week and well, there you go.

As to his 9/11 references, I do have in front of me some 9/11 sketches about two large penises made to look like buildings with him making a very big smilie face at the bottom. Not sure what that is about, but we are currently working through it.

As to 9/11 writings, well, I can share a snippet from one for you:

I hate Vegemite sandwiches. My mother used to give them to me all the time, and I hate that bitch."

I can't explain it, but kangaroos turn me on. I'm not sure if it's the way the females look at me, or how they move their cute little butts, but I am so attracted to them, I could poke one until I was silly sore.

My mother looked like an Aborigine. In fact, I think my father was one. My hairline is all because of my Aboriginal ancestry, and hate everyone of them. Die all go to hell, nutcrackers in a shell. I don't buy from Dell! Bubba wabbu dabba doo. I like Scooby-Doo.

Well, the last snippet is quite confusing to you I would imagine, but take it easy on the old chap.

Cheers Mates,

cyclotouriste?

I know this guy. There's only one person on the internet who behaves exactly the way this individual does. I followed a link posted elsewhere into this thread. Forgive me for butting in.

Yeh, there are a lot of thin-skinned people out there, but there isn't a soul who reacts with such vitriol after such innocently made comments as this guy.

He's known among denizens of motorcycle forums as "eddyirish" or "irisheddy", also once called himself "farmboy".

He's also a pathological liar; witness the absolutely bizarre statement that he knew all about 9/11 before it happened.

He's also claimed at various times to be:

1. A vietnam veteran (marines) who's killed as many as 200 "charlies" hand to hand.
2. A famous doctor, who ran: a. a drug rehab center, or b. a clinic for orphans (depends on which thread you happen to drop in on when he's making that particular brag).
3. An executive at GM who was responsible for setting up equitable severance packages for laid off workers.
4. Owner of "several" internet services.
5. Has personally killed several people who attempted to insult him face-to-face.

What we do know for sure about eddy is that he's married (makes you wonder why he's pretending to look for a female traveling companion, maybe his wife finally left him?), he's about 60 years old, and not a bad looking fellow. Used to own a very nice BMW R90S, and more recently a Kawasaki ZX12. We also know where he lives, but we won't reveal that information publicly because that would be crossing the line.

Hiya eddy, how're ya doin? Haven't seen you around much in the last couple of years. Last time was on that watch collector's forum. You've been so entertaining over the years, that we keep an eye out for you.

btw, in case anyone is interested, I'm not just here to rag on irisheddy/cyclotouriste, I'm looking for info from anyone who's managed a trip down the Pan American Highway as far as the Panama Border.

Hi from the UK... I'm another latecomer....

Reading the OP's rants and raves gave me the following thoughts:
- if you assume he's lying: he is in severe need of professional help
- if you assume he's telling the truth: he knew about the commissioning of a crime in detail, and yet he did not provide proof to the relevant authorities (anonymous phone calls, and chatting with friends/strangers does not count, nor ranting to a cop he meets on the street) - this would make him an accessory before the fact. As such, he would be open to charges under the US Code.

The fact that he is also making threats against persons would also constitute cause for charges under the US Code.

I am not a fully-qualified psychiatrist, but the OP exhibits these traits:
- delusional paranoia (the CIE tried to kill him? The Irish train company - not a terrorist organisation as he claims)
- schizophrenia
- aggressive dissociative disorder (the "mood swings" in his posts etc, moving from the appearance of a stable, calm individual to a raving, threatening individual who is threatening actual bodily harm against those who criticise him)

... plus other personality disorders.

It is no surprise that he is looking for a companion for cycling... his wife must have left him years ago (assuming that she is still alive).

I find his posts to be very worrying - all the other comments on this thread have been very funny though!

Another thought I had while reading his various posts and articles on the web is that he seems to be involved with a lot of death - there would appear to be circumstantial evidence that he is involved in these events.... that is purely a personal comment, as I have absolutely no legal expertise, other than that required for my profession.

Hrrm...While I'm reluctant to take the OP seriously I did notice that in the course of his ramblings on other sites (so many other sites - who is this person that he spends so much time on the net?) his stories seem to point more towards him being the originator and instigator of the various incidents he found himself embroiled in or claimed to have prior knowledge of. If he wanted to paint himself in the 'chisel jawed hero, sacrificing some for the benefit of all' light that his initial posts seemed to indicate as his self image then he should really try casting a critical eye over his prose.

On a more serious note however, I do find his intimations that the CIE rail accident in Buttevant was a directed assassination attempt on him both disturbing and insulting to the families of the 18 dead and who knows how many who suffered permant disabilities due to this awful accident, a result of cattle being on the line. I'm sure that any Americans (and quite a few of us non-American's) feel the same about him using 9-11 as a springboard to his personal fame.

This gentlemen would be consigned to the same heap as the CIA-trained pine tree assassins author (for who remember that one) excepting the fact that his posts are in so much worse taste and affect so many more.

Do not delete the thread but continue to deride the originator. It's only through contempt can this person truly understand that his lasting impression on the Net (and probably in RL) will be one of pity, disgust and ill-concealed distaste.

Regards,
Evac101

Our friend Cyclotouriste has resurfaced on a forum dedicated to the band Teenage Fanclub spouting off about how he knew all about the bombings in London before they happened.

Why he chose not to mention it until 2 days afterward is, of course, because he wanted to punish the evil capitalists who beat up his 3 month old daughter. Speaking as someone who missed the Circle line blast by about 10 mins, I find this guy to be more than a little offensive. I'm OK with him being a weapons-grade nutcase and found his rant at the top of this thread laugh out loud funny but he really needs help. Mind you - maybe I'm feeding his warped little ego by still talking about the tosser. Anyway...

Anyone else notice that cyclotouristes' bio states that he is 55 (actually typed fifty-five), and yet at the begining of the post he writes his age as (again typed) fifty-three?

With mistakes like that, you'll want to get your book proof-read before it gets released, otherwise you'll become an international laughing stock.

Oh wait...

I'm baaack you yellow bellied, pontoons. I now own an AK 47 and I'll personally visit each one of you chickenshit sons of mothers very soon. I'm a man on a mission with a vision to recondition your current vital condition.

Okay, see, the difference between you and cyclotouriste is that cyclotouriste is actually funny.

Shut your fuckin trap cyclotouriste. you're gay. You sound exactly like what you are try to describe. You are probably a 12 year old girl with a vaginal infection that is getting you upset. Go take care of that! I hear your mommy calling.

* "you're gay" is extremely offensive.

*You are obviously a male; I can tell because no woman would ever joke about a vaginal infection, nor would she think a 12-year-old was likely to get one. It makes you look more intelligent when you stick to topics that you know about.

When I see that phrase used on a forum, it is just a big sign over the posters head saying "I am mentally about 10 years old and cannot think up any constructive argument. I need to buy a thesaurus".

If you look in a dictionary "Gay" also means a happy person..... not exactly describing this thread. :D

adj., gay·er, gay·est.

- 1 Of, relating to, or having a sexual orientation to persons of the same sex.
- 2 Showing or characterized by cheerfulness and lighthearted excitement; merry.
- 3 Bright or lively, especially in color: a gay, sunny room.
- 4 Given to social pleasures.
- 5 Dissolute; licentious.

n.

- 1 A person whose sexual orientation is to persons of the same sex.
- 2 A man whose sexual orientation is to men: an alliance of gays and lesbians.

Hey, this thread has been the funniest and most entertaining thing I have seen in a long time. I did a Google search on John Gobin Shaw. I don't think his name is a fusion of three other names.

<http://www.civilwarhome.com/grandarmyofrepublic.htm>

The link above lists a John PSG Shaw as a guy killed over 100+ years ago. Cyclotouriste also uses the 'P.S.' part in his online teaching resumes. Anyway, I think whoever this guy is, he definitely WILL be on the CIA/FBI 'known' lists. Apart from mowing the grassy knoll where Kennedy was shot from he claims to have prettier much been part of everything in recent history. I think such twisted anger might stem from stunted genitalia and a lack of sex. This is probably why he is looking for a girl to cycle with him. CYCLO...www.adultfriendfinder.com.

Hi all, should probably state first up, I couldn't give a rats arse about cycling.

But thought I'd let you all know Cyclotouristes fame has spread far and wide. Got an email with this link, and have to say it's the best laugh I've had all day.

Keep it real "Cyclo"!!! Can't believe you haven't got your female travelling partner yet, but don't worry, you'll have your skin-suit completed any day now, maybe spend a bit less time frolicking around by the well, practicing your "Mangina".

Hey Cycletourist!

Everyone has someone in the world that is just the perfect fit for them. Thankfully I stumbled on to this post and I believe I can help you out. My ex-wife loves to cycle and judging by your post, you two would be a match made in heaven. Let me know and I will be try to hook you two up. Oh yeah, one other thing. when you two first meet, you should know that she likes to build slowly to the dirty talk. I would suggest strongly that you give it a day or two out on the road getting to know one another for a while before starting in with the "spicy" love talk. I don't want to tell any secrets but she really, really gets off on aggressive stuff. Especially out in the middle of nowhere where there is nobody but you, her and nature. Bon Voyage! You lucky dog!

Just to let you guys know that a link to this thread has somehow found its way on to a football forum in the UK. It gave me nearly as much to laugh about as "Things my girlfriend and I have argued about"

It gives a whole new meaning to aggression.....!

Man, this guy really IS lying about his age.

He claims to be a survivor of Ireland's worst railroad (sic) disaster. Since Ireland's worst railway disaster occurred in 1889, that would make him at least 116 years of age. :-)

The above led me here and you people are made an example. Excerpt:

"While today's hive-minded tech evangelists view their digital exchanges as a kind of telepathy, it's more like a stuttering Morse Code tapped out on a keyboard where the dash key isn't working.

So all kinds of hilarious misunderstandings ensue. Factor in the frightful earnestness and literalism of some participants, who seem to be disproportionately represented online, and huge swathes of meaning are guaranteed to go undetected.

This is one of our favorite examples."

Yeah, I agree with the Register.

I was just wondering if people think Ian Holloway will ever be facially aware?

Surely Bircham can't be guaranteed a place in the starting XI?

What about Matt Doran? Is he really human?

I NEED HELP NOW!

I must admit that when I first read the post, I suspected that Cyclotouriste was quite possibly delusional if not a little insane.

But upon further investigation I can now reveal that he is a prophet sent here to save us. Further proof lies at:

Cyclotouriste, come back - all is forgiven.

AndrewWyndupp: Are you trying to get our Prophet to tell you about a sporting result? He doesn't seem too keen on those kinds of quotes. I assume it is 'cos you can't die from it. His prophecies only seem to be about death - often his own. :D

As to the mondopolitico site... have you actually sat and read that stuff? It gets pretty messy if you try and put a time line through it. One common thread that I noticed - what happened to "The pregnant wife and child, returned from China in 1997". Then one more mention of his kid in 2001. But between that time, and during other posts, he is often making comments about other women. Kinda get the feeling that even his wife got fed up with his paranoia prophecies and divorced him.....

I also want to know why "they" were after him to "attack" him in that train.... lol.
